Father Identifies Youth Killed By Vancouver Officer

Reginald McCrae, 20, Fatally Wounded in Street Gunfight Following Holdup

Wide Search For Bandits Who Escaped; Wounded Policeman in Hospital

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 19.—Fatally wounded in a gun duel with police following a daring robbery of the Service Recreation Club, 680 Robson Street, here yesterday evening, the youthful alleged bandit who gave the name of "Joseph Anthony, Toronto," was identified as Reginald McCrae, twenty, Adanac Street, Vancouver, by the youth's father today.

McCrae was shot by Constable D. M. Richardson a few minutes after three men had held up the service club and fled with $250. Constables Richardson and May, 19, were driving by when the men left the club. McCrae started up the lane and Richardson gave chase. McCrae turned and fired, wounding the officer in the thigh. Richardson emptied his gun at the fleeing man as he slumped to the pavement. Constable Veitch took up the chase and overtook McCrae, who had fallen with four wounds in the abdomen.

Taken to a hospital, McCrae died forty-five minutes later, giving the fictitious name and address before he died. The officer's wound is not considered serious.

Immediately after the robbery and shooting, which occupied but a few minutes, police had all roads cordoned.

BOMB SET OFF IN TIENTSIN

Several Killed and Number Injured in Explosion in Railway Station

Associated Press
Tientsin, China, May 19.—A high explosive bomb, flung into the crowded East Railway station here today, partially wrecked the building and killed or injured several persons. Chinese authorities said they did not know the exact quality list, but they declared it was nowhere near 100, as reported by Japanese sources.

ASSAILANTS UNKNOWN

Shanghai, May 19.—One hundred persons were reported killed or wounded to-night by a high explosive bomb which exploded in a crowded railway station in the eastern portion of Tientsin.

Japanese dispatches, telling of the explosion, said the bomb was hurled by persons unknown.

The bomb went off in the centre of the waiting room, which was crowded with Chinese soldiers and refugees from the north China war area, the Japanese dispatch said. Most of the victims were soldiers or refugees.

U.S. Stars Take Davis Cup Tennis

Montreal, May 19.—United States put Canada out of further competition for the Davis Cup by capturing the doubles this afternoon for their third straight victory in the North American zone finals.

The formidable doubles combination of George Lott and Johnny Van Ryn trounced Dr. Jack Wright, Vancouver veteran, and Marcel Rainville, Montreal, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Yesterday Ellsworth Vines and Wilmer Allison, respectively, defeated Gilbert Nunn, Toronto, and Dr. Wright, Vancouver, also in straight sets, the United States thus taking the whole series in nine sets. They now meet Argentina at Washington in the inter-zone final.

Premier Tolmie Displays His Sense of Humor, Says Thomas Uphill

Whistle of Surprise, Then Burst of Laughter at Vancouver Meeting

Despite the impressive stage setting that marked his entry into the British Columbia government as "the man of the hour," Premier Tolmie's latest dramatic production in the light of a comedy.

Instead of accepting Hon. W. Middleton Denies, Minister of Labor as the figure who will lead British Columbia to higher and better things and assure the province of a government that will solve all problems for all times, they scoff.

Mr. Denies's dramatic reception of newsmen and his initiative and fortitude in issuing a statement of government policy, even before attending his first cabinet meeting, have failed to create an impression, Labor men seem inclined to regard the classic presentation in the light of a burlesque, with the new minister as the latest member of the stock company.

With the Japanese moves in North China area giving rise to numerous reports, Peiping and Tientsin are occupying much newspaper space these days. ## SCORES CHANGE IN MINISTRY

Bowser Says Salary of Hon. W. M. Denies Must Be Classified as Illegal

Points Out Payment Not Authorized By Legislature of British Columbia

Chilliwack, B. C., May 19.—W. J. Bowser, declares that the salary of Hon. W. M. Denies, new Minister of Labor in the Tolmie cabinet, "Further more," he says, "any man who accepts office must go back to the people for election. Here we have a man appointed a minister without the people's choice, whether they want him or not, and without his salary being authorized by the Legislature."

The Premier, either has no authority, or if he has he has not taken his advice," said Mr. Bowser at a meeting he addressed yesterday evening. "I state it out of my knowledge, a former Attorney-General for nine years, that it is illegal for the Lieutenant-Governor to take such action."

The meeting filled the large school auditorium, and was presided over by Ex-reeve J. A. McLeod, who stated he had opposed both Mr. Bowser and Donald Donaghy on former occasions, but in view of the unsatisfactory condition of the affairs of the province, he felt it his duty to support their platform of non-partisan government. Mr. McLeod was the candidate of the Provincial Party under Maj. Gen. McRae.

Mr. Denies's dramatic reception of newsmen and his initiative and fortitude in issuing a statement of government policy, even before attending his first cabinet meeting, have failed to create an impression, Labor men seem inclined to regard the classic presentation in the light of a burlesque, with the new minister as the latest member of the stock company.

BENNETT SEES NO EARLY TITLE

Throw-back to Medievalism, Says N. F. Priestly, Alberta Farm Leader

Canadian Press
Ottawa, May 19.—A London cable quoting The Daily Herald to the effect that Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett might be given a peerage in the King's birthday honours June 3 was described as "absolutely nonsense" by the Prime Minister today.

The Prime Minister has taken no stand against the awarding of titles to Canadians, and the rumor that he would some day be recognized in this manner by the King is not new.

The subject was brought to the fore last Wednesday because of an answer given in the Commons by the Prime Minister to a question asked by a Liberal with respect to the government's attitude toward titles.

A non-support autumns was found in one of Hoff's pockets.

RECORD TOTAL OF ASPIRANTS

Sixteen Candidates May Seek Victoria Seats in Provincial Legislature

Reeve Crouch to Seek Seat; Pooley Gets Nomination in Esquimalt

When British Columbia electors go to the polls within the next two or three months to name the members of the next Legislature there will be the greatest list of aspirants for the forty-seven seats there has been in the history of the province according to present indications.

In Victoria there is a possibility that electors will make their choice from sixteen candidates. In constituencies where one member is elected there will, in a number of instances, be four aspirants appealing for votes.

CROUCH AND LEEMING MAY RUN

Besides Norman W. Whittaker, who gave him a close run in the 1928 election, Premier Tolmie may have two or three opponents.

Also in the list of those who have been mentioned as likely to make a bid for election in Victoria as independent candidates is Mayor Leeming. Giving Victoria a wide choice there is every indication that "eight Conservatives will be in the field, four under the newly formed Unionist Party of the Tolmie government and four as Bowser candidates."

C.C.F. IN FIELD

What action Labor will take is problematical. Overtures have been made to the Trades and Labor Council, by Rev. Robert Connell, acting as spokesman for the Commonwealth Co-operative Federation for labor to throw its weight with the C.C.F. the left wing of labor, and a decision will be made early next month.

Liberals are proceeding rapidly with the nominations and probably by the end of the month will have named all the men who will carry the party banner throughout the province. I have observed that the Liberals have announced their intentions, but Conservatives of either the Bowser or Tolmie wing have been slow in coming forward. In many cases candidates for both wings will be named.

TWO SEEK LIBERAL HONORS AT ATLIN

Prince Rupert, May 19. (Canadian Press)—Two candidates are expected to seek the nomination to contest the Atlin riding in the provincial election when Liberal convention opens in Anxox sometime early in June.

William J. Asselstine, superintendent of the mill of the Premier mine, has announced his candidature for nomination, while H. F. Kergin, present member, is also expected to seek reelection.

NOT DROPPING TWO MINISTERS

Howe and Hinchliffe to Remain in Cabinet, Premier Tolmie Says

Statements in Conservative papers that Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary, and Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, Minister of Education, would be dropped from the B.C. Cabinet and further resignations made, were unauthorized and without foundation, Premier Tolmie said this morning.

"I notice that the story has been carried as emanating from a government organ," said the Premier. "I have not the slightest idea where the story originated and you are authorized to deny it."

Premier Tolmie said selection of Hon. W. Middleton Denies as Minister of Labor was not to be construed in any way as discrimination against international labor unions.

"I am making a sincere effort to give labor a voice in the councils of this government and trust that organized labor as a whole will recognize that fact," said the Premier.

Henderson, Chairman of Conference at Geneva, Welcomes Chancellor's Statement Germany Will Completely Disarm If Other Nations Do Likewise

Roosevelt's Move Given Approval

Chairman Urges Delegates to Reach Agreement Before Start of Economic Conference in London

Canadian Press and Associated Press
Geneva, May 19.—Germany accepted the British disarmament plan to-day as a basis for an agreement to be reached by the World Disarmament Conference.

Rudolf Nadeln, the German delegate, informed the conference of the decision of his government.

An eager crowd heard Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson open the session by reading President Roosevelt's recent message.

The Roosevelt message and Chancellor Hitler's speech were hailed by President Henderson as notable events. "The message is a contribution to our work, whose importance cannot be overrated," Mr. Henderson said.

The President expressed the opinion Mr. Roosevelt's recommendations for a non-aggression pact would help in the effort to determine the aggressor nation, while his advocacy of the abolition of aggressive weapons would also be of practical assistance.

EQUALITY OF DISARMAMENT

Mr. Henderson hailed also as helpful Chancellor Hitler's announcement that no disarmament would be too drastic for Germany if other nations would accept it.

Rene Massigli, for France, pledged his government's readiness to co-operate, and assured Herr Nadeln a statement meant that now there was no obstacle in the way of completing a disarmament treaty.

DANGER OF COLLAPSE

Mr. Henderson said he was struck forcibly by the Chancellor's warning that any new war would cause the collapse of the social and political order of the world. "If it comes, it will be a disaster," he continued, "no one can predict the outcome. We must remember war is the epitome of all human folly."

The conference president made an impassioned appeal to the delegates to reach a disarmament agreement before the start of the "Fourth Economic Conference of the League of Nations" on June 12. Such an agreement, he said, would answer the appeal of President Roosevelt.

shooting and were given a description of the two men sought in connection with it.
To-day a wide search was in progress.
HERDED INTO CORNER
Three armed men, masked with handkerchiefs, followed a patron in the service club at 9:10 o'clock yesterday evening. About twenty persons were in the place. They were herded into a corner of the main room by the gunman.
Bert Henderson and William Walsh, in charge of the club, were just about to count the money in the cash register, preparatory to placing it in a cash box for deposit in the office safe.
"Stick 'em up!" ordered one of the men to the patrons; then addressing Henderson and Walsh, he said:
"This may mean death to you and life to me."
No one moved as two of the men looted the cash register of its contents, $285, while the third man prowled through smaller adjoining rooms, apparently for the purpose of seeing whether any person was in hiding.
ALARM GIVEN
One man, in a washroom, heard the bandit order for those present to hold up their hands and looking out through a window and leaning out, shouted for aid.
Alarmed by his outcry, one of the two men, looting the register, called out to the man searching the smaller rooms: "Joe! Joe! Come on. We've got the money. Let's get out of here. Come on, the bulls may be here any minute."
"Joe" joined them and they fled to the street.
PURSUED BY CONSTABLE
Constable Richardson and Constable W. T. Geitch, in plain clothes, were driving north in the 800 block of Seymour Street and were not aware of the robbery, but noticed two suspicious-looking men at Seymour and Robson Streets. They turned west into Robson Street to get a better look at them. Constable Richardson saw the man who had darted into a passage that connects the lane and Seymour Street. They noticed a man south of Robson and swung their car into the lane into the broken window of the club and heard an outcry from there.
As the car neared the man in the lane, he ran. Constable Richardson leaped from the car and went in pursuit. Veitch also jumped out and ran to Robson Street and east on that street, intending to head off the man who had darted into a passage that connects the lane and Seymour Street. Before Veitch could reach the mouth of the passage, both the man and Richardson had crossed Seymour Street.
Suddenly the fugitive wheeled around and opened fire on Richardson, one of his bullets striking the officer in the thigh and throwing him to the ground. The officer's head struck the wall of one of the houses and a gas was inhaled.
OFFICER FIRES
In spite of the shock of the bullet the officer drew his revolver and returned the fire, emptying his weapon of its six loads.
The man turned and ran.
At that moment Veitch arrived, having been guided by the sound of the shots.
"Are you hit?" queried Veitch.
"Never mind me. I am not hurt. Go after him and get him," replied the wounded officer.
FOUND BLEEDING
Veitch took up the chase and, following a trail of blood, located the man at the rear of 818 Richards Street, in a state of collapse and bleeding from wounds in the abdomen.
The officer called for an ambulance and had the wounded man rushed to the General Hospital. In the meantime a call had been sent in from 817 Richards Street to police headquarters saying a policeman had been shot.
A number of officers rushed to the scene and Richardson was also sent to the same hospital.
REVOLVER FOUND
Near 837 Richards Street Constable

P. Pitts picked up a .38 calibre revolver which had recently been discharged. At the hospital it was discovered that Richardson's wound was not serious, while the other man had received four bullet wounds in the groin and abdomen.
The deputy chief questioned the wounded man.
And made a partial identification of the man as the one called "Joe" by the two other bandits.
The body was later removed to the morgue, where fingerprints were taken.
The cap worn by him bore a label which showed it had been purchased at Denver.
He was of slim build, five feet ten inches in height, fair hair and complexion.
Constable Richardson is thirty-one years old and a native of Scotland. He joined the Vancouver Police Department in 1928. He is married and has two children.

Labor is the Hon. William Middleton Denny's report reads.
"Ferry Brougher read to the meeting the copy of a press dispatch announcing the appointment, giving the minister's career and Premier Tomin's statement.
"The executive was instructed to deal with the matter, one suggestion being that Premier Tomin be 'put right' on the suggestion that Mr. Denny represents organized labor.
"There was a good deal of jocularity about the discussion, but it ended on a serious note.
"The important thing for us to remember," said James Thomson, representative of the Pile Drivers, "is that he has been picked for this job, not because he is a representative of organized labor, but because of his activities against organized labor, and for no other reason."
Colin McDonald, president, backed this up with the statement that Mr. Denny and his organization, while Mr. Brougher said had not more than thirty members, had been used by the Contractors' Association to break down the standards of work and wages built up by organized labor.
One member questioned that there had been any such organization in 1908 as Amalgamated Carpenters of Canada, which Mr. Denny was said to have joined in that year.

Tangshan, showing no evidence of a further advance.
The Japanese legation to-day denied notification had been given to foreign diplomats that Peiping and Tientsin would be occupied immediately unless the Chinese military opposition in North China ceased. Spokesmen for the British and United States legations characterized such reports as absurd.
The Japanese were sixty miles from Tientsin at the nearest point, Tangshan, and a small detachment was at Yutien. The nearest they were to Tientsin, the survey disclosed, was at Miyun, thirty-five miles to the north and forty miles from Peiping.
TOWN OCCUPIED
Tokyo, May 19.—Rengo (Japanese) News Agency dispatches from the North China war zone to-day said the Eighth Japanese Division—Lieut. Gen. Yoshikazu Masui, had occupied Hsuiji, thirty miles north of Peiping, and then continued in the direction of Shunyi.
Chinese resistance was said to be very slight.

NO NEW CUT IN FRENCH ARMY

Senate Agrees With Premier
Armed Forces Must Not Be Reduced

Canadian Press and Associated Press
Paris, May 19.—Maintenance of a strong army was the French reply to-day to Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany.
Premier Edouard Daladier, categorically rejecting a further cut in war expenditures, declared in the Senate to-day the French army was strong and must be kept strong.
The Premier said the Senate war economies had been made, but they had not impaired the army's strength. The Senate immediately exempted the defense budget from a 5 per cent additional cut.
FUTURE WILL TELL
The Disarmament Conference might achieve something, the Premier said, but "for the present we would be deluding ourselves if we slackened military preparations. Only the future can tell if other peoples are ready to disarm."

In official circles it was said Chancellor Hitler's speech before the Reichstag Wednesday had changed nothing. One person in touch with the government said that "Hitler is still Hitler, and he has merely camouflaged."

LIBERALS TO CROSS FLOOR

Convention Decides Party in Britain Will Sit With Opposition

By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Writer

Scarborough, Eng., May 19.—The Liberal conference emphatically decided to-day that Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the party, should cross the floor of the Commons into the Opposition.

It was a victory for revolt which came after a long and warm discussion, and was secured by the adoption of an amendment to a resolution submitted by the national executive—an amendment the chairman announced that the majority of the delegates were unable to accept.

The resolution submitted by the executive declared the government's policy, as developed during the last year, had alienated the support of all persons with a Liberal outlook. But in effect the resolution left freedom of action with the Liberal parliamentary party.

The amendment calling on Liberals to cross the floor of the Commons from the ranks of the National Government was declared carried on a standing vote.

On Sunday a golf tournament will be played over the Colwood course and Sunday evening an informal gathering will be held at the hotel for the presentation of the golf prizes.

The business sessions will terminate Monday and the same afternoon at 5 o'clock the California delegation will entertain the entire convention aboard the Santa Paula, which will be in port on her outward trip.

It is expected there will be at least 100 delegates to the convention, with forty coming from California. The remainder will be from Washington and Oregon and British Columbia.

LARGEST YET

It will be the largest convention in point of attendance ever held by the Pacific Coast coffee interests.

Seven years ago the convention was held in Victoria and prior to and since that year the meetings have been held annually at Del Monte, Calif.

It is largely due to the efforts of the Bains family, which the convention is meeting here, for since 1926 they have been urging that the convention be held in Victoria.

WHEELS ARE TURNING

Mr. Playfair said he felt business was improving in Canada. There was a feeling of confidence that had not existed for years. "The wheels of industry are beginning to turn. I think things are going to be steadily better," he said.

CATTLE TRADE

Mr. Campbell said: "Confidence is coming back. Cattle is starting to step out. Our cattle shipments during the last year have been heavy. The export market has come back to us. There is every indication the movement of Canadian beef cattle to the British market will be even better this year than it was last."

SUSTAINED GAINS

New York, May 19.—Reports of further business expansion to Dun and Bradstreet Inc. were more numerous this week, and indications of sustained gains were more convincing, although the forward movement was at a slower pace, the agency said to-day.

"Business in general," it asserted, "has assumed dimensions wider than seasonal, and has progressed to such a degree that it is becoming the exception to find a report from any section of the country which does not enumerate at least a few trades in which production and distribution have risen from the point at which they stood at the beginning of the quarter."

SCORES CHANGE IN MINISTRY

"Sure you will," said one of his auditors. Mr. Bowser smiled and replied: "Certainly not in this campaign."

During his nine years of retirement, Mr. Bowser said he had had an opportunity to review the past and note the wastefulness and extravagances which are essentially a part of party government. He had come to the conclusion, he said, there was no place for party strife in provincial administration.

SAYS EXPERIENCE LACKING
As an old-time Conservative, he was ashamed to quote the record of the Conservative Government for the last four years. Mr. Bowser claimed the Premier-Tomin lacked experience in provincial affairs and did not know when to say yes or no.

After four years of extravagance, said Mr. Bowser, the government had suddenly become frugal, and had cut all grants to farms and to municipalities and reduced grants to education, while at the same time adding to the tax burden of the people.

Taking the Jones budget figures for 1933-34, Mr. Bowser said he felt confident that in place of showing a deficit of $2,232,000, as anticipated by the minister, he would produce a surplus of $501,000 from the same revenue if returned to office.

DONAGHY SPEAKS

Dugald Donaghy made a strong attack on what he declared were the evils of the party system in provincial affairs. Mr. Donaghy's policy was to maintain the party system and borrow $400,000,000 from Premier Bennett's government as a solution of the present situation, he said.

Under the party system, Mr. Donaghy said five or ten per cent of the people made their voice heard and determined the policy of the government, and the remainder through the "pork barrel" Mr. Donaghy underwent considerable heckling from the audience.

It is to ask Parliament to declare that motion no longer is binding.

"Whether a man can be at the same time a member of the British House of Lords and the Canadian House of Commons is a nice constitutional point."

Calgary, May 19.—Possibility that titles will fall again on the shoulders of prominent Canadians failed to excite prominent Canadians who are leaders in business and political life.

Norman F. Priestley, secretary of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and vice-president of the United Farmers of Alberta, declared he did not have "much interest in the matter."

He added, however, that at this late date in Canadian life, other means of bestowing distinction could be found.

BETTER OUTLOOK IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Although no trade revival miracles are being performed, there is a better feeling in the air on this continent, a feeling that is quite intangible but none the less charged with encouragement.

Conditions in the neighboring republic are summed up dispassionately by The Business Week, a well-known New York financial and commercial journal, in the following manner:

Spring, belated, but all the more welcome, is coaxing green into the most unexpected parts of the business garden and so swiftly as to make the old-timers in Wall Street a little nervous. The sun seems warmest in the corner where the heavy industries are grouped. Steel is making rapid growth, fed by orders from motor makers and from miscellaneous sources. Employment and payrolls rose in April and undoubtedly will in May. Electric power production has passed the preceding year's level for the first time in more than two years; the rise, moreover, is strictly unseasonal. Public construction is still very small, but residential building is rapidly picking up. Carloadings promise this month to pass last May's volume. April department store sales naturally beat the unmentionable month of March. The administration pushes plans to further and to consolidate these gains. Its programme of public works and of aid and encouragement to industry is all ready. Preparations for the international conference proceed on the whole favorably, with a true to the making of further trade restrictions in the meantime. A bill to give us a better banking system emerges from committee, surprisingly little scarred with compromises. So astute a reader of the public temper as the President can hardly fail to sense that bank reform must be part of this season's work.

A note of optimism as far as Canada is concerned was struck by Mr. John W. Spears, assistant general manager of the Bank of Montreal at Winnipeg, who arrived in the city yesterday with Mr. Grant Hall and Mr. D. C. Coleman. Mr. Spears says the farmers of the Prairie Provinces are "in fine fettle" as a result of the increased price of wheat, as well as of hogs and lambs. That this improvement is likely to be lasting is suggested by the fact that the farmer is turning more to stock, and is not relying solely on wheat.

It should be remembered that Canada is primarily an agrarian country and agriculture in its many forms is our most important industry. The condition of agriculture between the Rocky Mountains and the Great Lakes largely influences the whole business structure of the Dominion. As the farmer becomes more prosperous, therefore, so will the dwellers in the urban centres benefit.

CANADA'S NAVY AND ITS DEVELOPMENT

Commander Victor Brodeur, R.C.N., officer in charge of the Esquimalt Naval Barracks, told the Kwanan Club many interesting things about the origin, progress and vicissitudes of the Canadian naval service a few days ago. The commander is exceptionally well-qualified to deal with this subject, since his father, the late Hon. L. P. Brodeur, for many years one of Canada's outstanding public men, was prominently identified with the inception and organization of this service and was the first Minister of the new Department, which he administered in conjunction with the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

Commander Brodeur was one of the first three cadets to train in the British navy for subsequent service in the new Canadian organization. One of the others was Commander C. A. Beard, well known here through his connection with the Esquimalt station a few years ago.

It was news to many in Commander Brodeur's audience that of the total annual naval appropriation of $2,500,000, more than one-half, or over a million dollars, were expended on this coast. There are more than five hundred persons in the Esquimalt establishment, and the pay-roll, the purchases of supplies and other expenses of maintenance, therefore, represent a decisive factor in the economic life of this community. Even more important is the opportunity the service is presenting for careers for the young manhood of this country, and the maritime consciousness it is developing to a very considerable extent.

MANUFACTURERS GIVE HINT TO DAIRYMEN

The British Columbia branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association is to be commended for its advice to the dairymen of Canada and the dairymen of New Zealand to get together to see if they can find a way of disposing of the perpetual wrangle about butter.

The chief commodity which New Zealand has to exchange for Canadian manufactured goods is butter. It has to pay a duty of five cents a pound to enter; but the last lot had to pay a dumping duty as well before it could be absorbed. This does not make either for a smooth or profitable working of the treaty.

Canadian manufacturers naturally are concerned about the settlement of this problem of butter because until some amicable arrangement has been reached the sales of factory products to New Zealand importers will remain insignificant in value.

Trade between Canada and New Zealand in 1929 was worth more than $32,000,000. In the twelve months ending last February it had dropped to less than $5,000,000, a reduction of more than $660,000 from 1932.

It is natural that the Canadian dairyman should desire to be protected in the home market; but if it is not possible for him to come to some arrangement with his competitor in New Zealand, so that the treaty will produce more all-round business, there would seem to be something wrong somewhere.

In any case it is refreshing to note the solicitude of the manufacturers for the producers engaged in the primary industries. It shows a spirit of co-operation which ought to be beneficial.

PARLIAMENT HAS MORE IMPORTANT BUSINESS THAN TITLES

We are told by Mr. Charles Bishop, the Ottawa correspondent of The Vancouver Daily Province, that the Prime Minister's pronouncement on Wednesday is not to be construed as opening the door to titles. Rather, Mr. Bishop says, it is an expression of opinion. Here is his comment in full:

"The idea is not new, that the Nickle resolution, adopted amid many heartburnings in the days of the Union government—under the Premiership of Sir Robert Borden—and which banned Canadians from titles, is not binding on this Parliament or on His Majesty. Constitutionalists are of divided opinion, but even if a right is asserted, or assumed, it does not follow that it is going to be exercised."

"That previous Parliaments regarded the Nickle resolution as binding, finds reflection in the fact that, in two different Parliaments, attempts were made to rescind it. Both were abortive. Nor is there much reason for doubt that, if the matter were broached in this Parliament and not made a party question—the caucus probably would see to it that it was not—the result would be the same, only more so. Drab days of depression furnish unfavorable temperatures for the flower of knighthood. Parliamentary opinion thinks that provocative effects on the masses would be created by the setting up of the class distinctions of a titled aristocracy."

"If by any chance they were re-established the troubles of the government, adequate as they are, might be greatly multiplied. For, even though the ranks of the aspiring were greatly decimated by the stock crash and its consequence, the members who would consider themselves called is still out of all proportion to those who could be chosen."

"Another obstacle to the restoration of titles is His Majesty's reported care in the exercise of the royal prerogative. He is not bound to accept the recommendation of any Prime Minister, particularly not while there stands on the records of the House of Commons a definite resolution, asking him to abstain from conferring such distinctions. That resolution, however inconsistent it may be with the usage in other dominions and even if it has no binding effect, is there. So long as it is, considered opinions of its validity are open to argument. Between the assertion of what it is possible to do and what may be done, there is likely to be a far call. The door may be unlocked. It does not follow that it is going to be opened."

It will strike most Canadians that Parliament would be better employed in the consideration of the many vital problems with which this country is confronted than by the discussion of unimportant and obsolete practices.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

TAKING THEM ON THE WING
 The Toronto Mail and Empire

Manitoba is threatened with one of its worst grasshopper invasions in certain areas. It is estimated that it will cost the province about $100,000 to fight the plague over an area of 1,800,000 acres. To kill the hoppers a bait is used—consisting of sawdust, bran and arsenic. It is stated that the introduction of sawdust in the bait is a Canadian discovery which saved $40,000 last year. To provide the life seventy machines are in operation in Manitoba turning out 100 pounds of the stuff every five minutes.

Experts at the British War Office Chemical Department on Salisbury Plain are studying methods by which locust swarms may be exterminated while on the wing. It was in connection with these experiments, just lately, that it was desired to obtain as quickly as possible a considerable number of live locusts.

To meet this demand the government of Kenya shipped several crates of insects to London by Imperial Airways. The insects were placed in wind-tunnels and subjected to a spraying treatment with creosote, and also with sodium arsenite dust.

The idea of the experiments is to discover improved methods for dealing with the locust plague in Africa, and more particularly to evolve methods whereby airplanes can attack the insects when they are on the wing and destroy them by releasing clouds of chemicals which will be most deadly in their effect. African administrations are collaborating actively in this new campaign, which is a matter of considerable importance to them, seeing that during the past few years the damage caused by locusts has amounted to over $30,000,000.

THE DRAMA FESTIVAL
 The Montreal Star

The idea of a Dominion-wide drama competition was first given practical expression through the efforts of Earl Grey. In its latest and more extensive aspect, it assumes vital significance as a broad and comprehensive cultural movement.

The deep interest taken by His Excellency the Governor-General in the theatre has prompted him to organize and carry through this festival, which has had quite astonishing results in arousing interest in drama throughout the country. Canada more than any other country is likely to be increasingly dependent upon its own efforts to provide good theatrical entertainment, and the importance of the work of the Little Theatres in this direction cannot be too strongly emphasized.

Fortunately, public support for the movement has been liberal, and the revelation of the existence of a solid body of real talent, both French and English, will perhaps come as a surprise to many who have hitherto given the matter but little thought. Canadians will owe a genuine debt to Lord Bessborough if, as a result of this festival, a permanent interest is created in our own drama and our own theatre.

A THOUGHT

The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.—Micah vii 2.

What has this unfeeling age of ours left untied, what wickedness has it shunned?—Horace.

Loose Ends

Mostly carping criticism of a destructive sort—such as statements made by the heart of statesmanship—and containing titles in Canada—the new political broom—the curbing of dangerous whims—starvation as a cure-all.

By H. B. W.

WHAT A HOPE

PREMIER BENNETT, yearning in his heart for an adequate and kindly recognition of public service, has just discovered the momentous fact that the King can still confer titles in Canada. If he wants to, for, says Mr. Bennett, the Canadian Parliament may have voted against titles years ago, but this does not bind the present Parliament, which may have different ideas entirely. In other words, there is still hope for those disgraced statesmen in Ottawa, on both sides of politics, who have long hungered after knighthoods, earldoms and garters. And what a hope it is, and how important in these times, when 1,300,000 Canadians are hungering for commodities—a good deal more substantial.

If a man wants a title let him pay for it. That has been the case in many instances in the past but the payments often have gone to party campaign funds. Mr. Lloyd George, for instance, paid £5,000 for party purposes in this way. This was satisfactory in good times, but just now the parties should be able to struggle along with the assistance of the brewing industry and a few hydro-electric projects like the Beauharnois. Let the cost of titles, therefore, be paid direct to the public treasury, on a flat rate, a certain amount for a peerage, less for a simple knighthood, according to a scale of fees to be fixed by Parliament and set forth in the Canada Gazette. Some new and cheaper titles could be devised within the means of poor but distinguished scientists and others who could not aspire to the higher ranks of nobility among wealthy promoters, but who might secure some slight recognition for their work for a small fee.

The total revenue from the programme would be enormous, should soon pay off the national debt, for those who really want titles will give anything for them. It is a better life, which Premier Bennett is accustomed to deliver about 6 a.m., Victoria time, when you get out of bed on a Sunday morning, expecting to hear something exciting.

NEW BROOM

THE HONORABLE MR. DENNIES, who suddenly turned up here the other day as a full-fledged Minister of the Crown and with the portfolio of Labor and his own private secretary, a prominent, clean-cut, I find interesting, Mr. Dennies, taking in a rather large territory, considering the difficulties of the world's governments in this matter up to now, says a proposal to elect him to the eighty-five per cent and possibly ninety-five per cent of the expense of unemployment relief. And to show how this can be done, he adds this striking paragraph: "By or in making a real critical survey of the industrial phase of the situation in the way of spreading the hours of work. This is by reducing, rotating or probably both, temporarily, during the depression. This is madness of the starker sort."

Nothing more silly, in fact, has been suggested during the depression than the rotation of labor, and Mr. Dennies, of course, didn't suggest it originally. It simply means this: Jones, a working man, is struggling to keep alive on an inadequate wage. Brown, his neighbor, has no wage at all and is on the dole. So we take Jones and put him on half time and let Brown work the other half. Thus we have two men on starvation wages. The total purchasing power of the two combined has been reduced. And where there was one man suffering before, now there are two. The programme simply means tearing down our living standards all along the line. Unless Mr. Dennies and Brown can both be put to work at adequate wages, he had better not try to rebuild society until he has thought it over for a week or two. And if he proposes to make industry pay greatly-increased wages, and his output, then I predict an interesting time for the government when the Manufacturers' Association hears about it.

Anyway, if you are going to rotate employment and wages, you can do so on salary should have every other day and get paid for two weeks' work a month. One is too delicate to suggest to Mr. Dennies where this arrangement could be adopted immediately without danger to the state. But all such drastic measures would be unnecessary altogether if industry would follow the Premier's example in providing employment within his cabinet on a large scale.

STARVING

THERE IS SOMETHING weird, but a little melancholy about it. Gaudin's is in favor of the Unouchables, which seems likely to kill him. I mean, it shows you the great gulf of spirit between us and the Asiatics. Over there in India the fact that a holy man is fasting, perhaps, is a death, a tremendous thing. It moves the people like a miracle from on high. A similar fast not long ago altered the political situation, alarmed the British Government, inflamed the whole Indian people. The entire world, indeed, was alarmed because a little brown man with a night shirt, a dollar watch and a safety pin was slowly starving to death. Over here nothing of the sort could ever happen.

We are too hard boiled here for such a thing. And if the statesmen could lie down and starve to death and this country would go about its business as usual. The Unouchables could go on being untouched. No one would start a revolution, indeed, if all the statesmen in Canada were to lie down together in one great, steaming pile and starve to death all at once. Most likely the country's only reaction would be to proclaim a public holiday. We have no time here for these higher manifestations of the human spirit. We are hard boiled and practical in the western world. That is why we have made a success of running our civilization. We do things in a big way. Instead of one brown man starving voluntarily we have millions of white ones half starving involuntarily.

FREE MEN

UNDER THE NEW regulations of the Canadian Radio Commission the radio may not be used to attack any of the existing laws of Canada. The radio may as well be turned over at once to the crooners, the jazz bands and the sob sisters. There is no use any man of importance wasting his time on it. For no man of importance, discussing any subject of importance, can avoid attacking some of the laws of Canada. British peoples have been attacking the laws of their various countries since the Norman Conquest, which is probably the reason that they have produced the best-governed countries in the world. If they hadn't been able to attack their laws, we should still be living under the Stuarts and most likely would all be slaves by this time.

Nothing worth while can be done about anything without drastic changes in many of our laws. If a man can't demand such changes, he had better stay home and read the newspapers where, fortunately, the Radio Commission is not yet in control. But if the Canadian Government can undertake to forbid discussions on the radio, the next step will be to forbid them on the public platform and in the press.

The joke throughout history, however, has always been on the fellows who drove discussion underground. Men who couldn't abuse the government and the whole social system on the street corner always descend into a cellar and presently there is an explosion which blows the roof off the cellar. That happened in France, in the American colonies, in Russia. It hasn't happened in British countries because we have always encouraged the street corner revolutionaries to a better life, which Premier Bennett is accustomed to deliver about 6 a.m., Victoria time, when you get out of bed on a Sunday morning, expecting to hear something exciting.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES
 May 19, 1908

(From The Times File)
 Weather Forecast—Victoria and Vicinity—Easterly winds, unsettled and cool, with showers.

It is not likely that any action will be taken to quash the four money by-laws passed by the ratepayers on April 16, the instructions given by Fred Peters, K.C., some time ago in connection with the matter having, it is understood, been revoked.

The city council is now engaged among other things in deciding upon the water question in deciding upon plans for a reservoir to aid the distribution system. Already plans have been prepared by Mr. Adams, the expert, for two different styles.

The pipers' band will take an important part in the Victoria Day Celebration this year. Pipe Major MacDonald has a group of men who can provide the best of Scotch music, from the Highland bagpipes to the understep make the feet tick to be tapping in the dances for which the north country is noted.

Sir Thomas' Lipton's new twenty-three metre cutter, the Shamrock, was launched at the yard of her designer and builder, William Pitt, Fairlie, Scotland, on Saturday, May 18.

GENEVA SAYS HOPES GROWING

Disarmament Outlook More Optimistic Following Roosevelt-Hitler Declarations

By JOSEPH SHARKEY
 Associated Press Staff Correspondent
 Geneva, Switzerland, May 19.—Delegates to the Disarmament Conference, considering events of the last few days, were more optimistic to-day.

The Roosevelt message to the world and the Hitler Reichstag address generally were regarded as clearing the air and producing a new and more hopeful atmosphere.

Delegates indicated eagerness to know how far the United States was disposed to go in what Geneva regards as completing the machinery of peace.

Particularly, the desire was to know whether the Washington government was disposed to accept in principle such things as:

1. Rigid international control of armaments.
2. Participation in a world pact of non-resort to force.
3. Helping the League in determining an aggressor.
4. Refraining from helping an aggressor once this determination had been effected.
5. Participation in any arms embargo.
6. Abandonment of the rights of neutrality in the event of an outbreak of war.

Geneva recognized the United States, like Great Britain, under its political system cannot give blanket promises in advance.

U.S. EXPLANATION

Washington, May 19.—The United States administration does not view President Roosevelt's disarmament message as changing this country's long-standing policy with regard to consulting with other nations in troubled times.

A White House interpretation of the message the President dispatched on Tuesday to the heads of fifty-four governments outlined three points on which the administration feels it has made definite promises:

That the United States will eliminate all forms of offensive warfare if every other nation will do the same.

That, subject to existing treaty rights, the United States will agree not to invade its neighbors during the disarmament period. If every other nation makes the same promise.

That the United States will consult other nations if there is a violation of any such agreements.

The determination of what action this government would take after such a consultation would be open to the United States at the time it was required. And this government will not consult with other nations to determine their policies.

RICHFIELD BROADCAST

To the Editor:—In a recent issue of your paper an item appeared stating that the Richfield broadcast had advised tourists to keep away from British Columbia on account of the Jones meal tax.

We, being the distributors of Richfield in-octane gasoline, received many complaints, together with losing considerable business. Indignantly, we telephoned the head office of Richfield in Los Angeles and were assured that at no time had they advised tourists to keep away from British Columbia. On the contrary, they would be pleased to give this province publicity as a tourist resort on receipt of the necessary information, which we will be pleased to forward to them.

BARRON OR BARON?

To the Editor:—I notice that Mr. Bennett says the several resolutions passed by Canadian Parliament against the bestowal of titles upon the present Parliament. This is interpreted in London as implying that Mr. Bennett is out for a peerage. How would "Viscount Humbly" do (with apologies to the Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas)? It is hard to appraise the standard of intelligence which can granting handles on names when there are more than a million people clamoring for work. That sort of stuff is in the nature of a thousand Russian Internationale. What is more disheartening is that it is a symptom that the malady from which strong. After a short business meeting of the Equatorial United Y.P.S., a very interesting and instructive address on aviation was given by Capt. E. C. Dobbin of the Coast Air Transport Co. Capt. Dobbin told of flying in the early days of the war and of how aviation had progressed in the last eighteen years, and of the precautions taken for the safety and comfort of passengers. The speaker closed his address with an invitation to the members to visit and inspect his big Boeing flying boat, now stationed at the airport in Esquimalt Harbor.

IS GIVEN NEW CHURCH POST

Rev. Alan Gardiner Will Take Over Pastorship of St. Paul's, Esquimalt

Rev. Alan Gardiner, M.A., B.D., pastor of St. Saviour's Church for the last two years, has been appointed rector of St. Paul's, Esquimalt, and for four years was assistant curate at St. Matthew's Church, Ottawa. Later he took a course at the General Theological Seminary, New York.

Following his arrival here, Mr. Gardiner was assistant at St. John's and vicar of St. Saviour's Church. In 1932, however, he took over sole duties as rector of the latter and during his term of service there a fine spirit of loyalty has existed, testifying to the esteem with which he was held.

Mr. Gardiner has been instrumental in having all outstanding debts cleared and the church and parish hall renovated at a cost of $1,500. In conjunction with his leaving St. Saviour's, Mr. Gardiner has also resigned as Anglican chaplain of St. Joseph's Hospital, a post which has been his for six months. He will receive the chaplaincy of the Fifth B.C.

You have been offered "quick-starting" gasolines, "power" gasolines, "anti-knock" gasolines. Here is a combination of all three. The three pure types of energy from the very heart of petroleum, with all the wasteful parts discarded.

QUICK ENERGY—For starting, pick-up, changes in motor speed. Very important to every driver. But only one of three essentials.

POWER ENERGY—Even the premium-priced fuels cannot excel Shell 3-energy in mileage, in power.

Compare any fuel with Shell 3-energy gasoline—regardless of price. But mileage isn't the whole story.

ANTI-KNOCK ENERGY—to turn power into a smooth, steady flow. To reduce engine strain and wear; to give you quiet, knock-free performance on the hills.

Look for all three of these energies in Shell. Compare it with the so-called special "power fuels," the "super-anti-knock" gasolines and featured "starting" varieties. Here is a gasoline that does the entire job better!

PSYCHIATRIST LEADER DEAD

Dr. H. A. Cotton Found
Physical Basis For Insanity;
Saved State $3,000,000

He Discarded "Instruments of Torture" and Strapping
Patients Down in Asylums

Trenton, N.J., May 17. — Dr. Henry Andrews Cotton, medical director meritorious of the New Jersey State Hospital, an internationally known psychiatrist, for his pioneer work in the treatment of the insane, died suddenly of a heart attack at the Trenton Club. He would have been fifty-seven ten days hence.

Dr. Cotton was credited with being the first alienist to approach the treatment of dementia praecox, melancholia and other forms of insanity from a physical standpoint, and his success in restoring thousands of inmates in the State Hospital, a large percentage of whom had been regarded as incurable, to normal life by such simple operations as the removal of infected teeth and tonsils, or of focal infections in the colon, gained him a world-wide reputation. His method was generally adopted in hospitals for the insane in this country and abroad.

He was appointed director of the State Hospital in 1907. He retired from work at the institution on October 1, 1930, but continued as director of research, with the title of director emeritus.

Born in Norfolk, Va., on May 18, 1876, Dr. Cotton was the son of George Adolphus Cotton and the former Mary Della Biggs, who was a descendant of Nathan Mayo, member of the Continental Congress, and of Judge Asa Biggs, one-time United States Senator from North Carolina. He attended the public schools of Baltimore, and was graduated in 1894 from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute. In 1895 he was a special student at Johns Hopkins University. He received his medical degree at the University of Maryland in 1899.

Dr. Cotton served his internship at the City Asylum, Bay View, Baltimore, and at the Worcester (Mass.) State Hospital. Later he became assistant superintendent at the Danvers (Mass.) Hospital for the Insane. In 1908 and 1909 he studied at the Royal Psychiatric Clinic of Munich, Germany, under Professor Alois Alzheimer, one of the leading neuropathologists of the world, and his researches there, Dr. Cotton said later, laid the foundation for his future work in the treatment of mental cases on a physical basis.

ENDED MECHANICAL RESTRAINTS.
His assuming charge at the State Hospital in Trenton in 1907 marked the beginning of a new era in the treatment of the insane. One of his first acts was to eliminate mechanical restraints, as that was recognized as the source of a large amount of trouble.

At that time ninety women were in strait-jackets day and night. Many others were restrained by wristlets, muffs, anklets and straps. More than 200 were tied in bed each night. Within a very few days after Dr. Cotton took charge all these unfortunate were released, and shortly thereafter all male patients, too, were freed from restraining and confining devices.

More than 700 "instruments of torture," Dr. Cotton said shortly before his death, were discarded in 1907 at the outset of his administration, not to be used again.

In his studies with Professor Alzheimer, Dr. Cotton stated, he was able to determine that there were definite changes in the brain of the so-called functional mental disorders. These changes were considered by Dr. Alzheimer to be the cause of mental symptoms in these mental disorders. With this information as a basis Dr. Cotton proceeded to investigate the physical factors in mental diseases.

He carried on his investigations in the laboratory of the State Hospital here from 1907 until 1918. In that year, he said later: "I was able to state definitely from our work that these so-called functional mental disorders were the result of toxic poisoning of the brain from the infections in the teeth, tonsils, gastro-intestinal tract and genito-urinary system."

The Freudian ideas, Dr. Cotton held, "were in direct contradiction to our ideas. Freud's whole theory is based on sex disturbances as a fundamental cause of the trouble. We emphatically disagree with these ideas, and will say that in some 2,000 cases which have recovered at Trenton by 1932 the sex question had not been discussed with them in any way whatever."

PERCENTAGE OF RECOVERY ROSE
One-half of the 2,000 cases cured, Dr. Cotton said, would have recovered spontaneously. But the other thousand recovered only as the result of the removal of bad teeth, tonsils, sinuses and similar infections. As the result of his methods, he added the state of New Jersey was saved at the rate of $1,000 per day, or $3,000,000 in twelve years. The average period of treatment for patients who recovered was reduced from ten months to three and a half months, and the percentage of recovery rose, it was stated, from 37 to 87 per cent.

The cases recovered included dementia praecox and melancholia. Dr. Cotton added that while not all types of insanity are due to infected focal points in the body, the latter were responsible for at least 50 per cent of our institutional cases to-day.

SERVED IN TWO WARS
Dr. Cotton served with the United States army during the Spanish American War and as a major in the Army Medical Corp during the World War. He was a member of the American Medical Association, American Psychiatric Association, National Association for the Study and Cure of Epilepsy, New England Society of Psychiatry, New York Psychiatric Society, Society of Cincinnati, Sons of the Revolution, Sons of Colonial Wars and Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity and a corresponding member of the British Medical-Psychological Association. He received an honorary A.M. degree from St. John's College in 1914. His clubs included the Nassau of Cincinnati, the Trenton and the Trenton Country.

He lectured widely here and abroad. His Vanuxem lectures at Princeton in 1921 were published in book form, "The Defective Delinquent and Insane." He was also the author of many pamphlets and papers.

Dr. Cotton also served as acting director of the Psychiatric Clinic for Correctional Institutions of New Jersey, and acting director of medicine and psychiatry, State Board of Institutions and Agencies of New Jersey.

On October 16, 1908, Dr. Cotton married Miss A. Della Keys of Baltimore. Mrs. Cotton survives him with two sons, Henry Andrews Cotton Jr. and Adolphus G. Cotton.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

THE KITCHEN IS THE HOME'S WORKSHOP; THE TOOL MUST SUIT THE PURPOSE.

By SISTER MARY

It is in the kitchen that the bride is put up on her mettle and must "earn her spurs" so to speak, and unless her equipment is adequate and suitable she will be hard pressed to achieve perfect results. If the necessary tools are not at hand she will find it twice as difficult to serve meals that do her credit.

This is as true for the bride who will not do her own cooking as for the one who will. The kitchen is the workshop of every home and its efficiency is determined by its equipment.

Before you make out your list of kitchen utensils, "take stock" of yourself, your husband and your circumstances. Have you been much feted during your engagement and must you return in kind? Or will most of your meals be prepared for two with an occasional extra couple for an informal dinner? Will you cook in a kitchenette or an honest-to-goodness kitchen? All these factors influence the kind and type of utensils chosen.

STRIKE A MEDIUM
Undoubtedly, most of your cooking will be done for two. Materials are wasted and success cannot be assured if sauce pans and spiders and baking dishes are too large. A cup of sauce made in a two-quart sauce pan is lost.
Two rashers of bacon and eggs cooked in an eight-inch spider are next to impossible. The same holds true regarding pudding pans and baking dishes. However, beware of too small utensils, for these invite boiling-over when cooking and spilling-over when mixing.

You will find a rather bewildering array of materials offered in all kinds of utensils. Glass, iron, steel, enamel-ware, cast and sheet aluminum, wood and earthenware all find places in the kitchen. In many articles the materials can be used interchangeably, personal preference being the deciding factor. The use of some utensils determines the kind of materials chosen.

ECONOMY IN QUALITY

Standard equipment that will be in daily use will prove most satisfactory and economical if made of a material that will withstand heat and rough usage. Iron, steel and cast aluminum are practically indestructible and utensils made of these materials will actually "last a lifetime." The price and weight will vary with the metal.
Steel does not hold the heat as the other two metals do, but it is quick to heat through and excellent for quick cooking and hurry-up dishes. It is also light to handle and easy to care for.

Sheet aluminum, enamelware, glass and the heat-proof pottery are not affected by heat—unless they are abused—but they will not stand hard knocks. Aluminum will dent, glass and pottery will break and enamelware will crack and chip if carelessly handled.
However, these materials are easy to keep clean, light to use and the case of pottery and glass can be sent straight from the oven to the table.

The copper utensils are durable and make a beautiful kitchen. They are easy to care for and a joy to use.

Y Wins Warm Praise From Mayor Leeming

Lauds Splendid Service of Association to City at Annual Meeting
Reports on Activities of Various Groups Presented to Membership

"The Y.M.C.A. in my mind, fills an absolute need in every Christian community and in Victoria it has carried out its work well. The association here has helped to provide the city with good sound citizens by training them during their earlier days," said Mayor Leeming yesterday evening paying tribute to the excellent work being done by the local association in a short speech at the annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A.

"The success of your recent campaign indicates the faith of the public in the institution," he continued before proceeding with an inspirational address in which he reviewed the Christian aims of the association.

The mayor's remarks followed the official opening of the meeting by H. B. Witter, president of the association, who spoke briefly of the activities of the association.

"The year has been a trying one, but we feel certain that after hearing the various reports given this evening you will agree that we have been on the job," Mr. Witter said.

LAUDS STAFF

"I wish to congratulate the staff for the excellent work they have done under the capable leadership of Frank Paulding. I also wish to convey to the Ladies Auxiliary the deep appreciation of the board of directors for the wonderful work they have accomplished. The press has been very good to us during the year. Hardly a day goes by but you see some mention of it of the work carried on by the Y.M.C.A."

"I wish to pay tribute to the service which P. E. Winslow has rendered this association during our recent financial campaign. He is chairman of our advisory committee and great credit is due him for the success obtained. In closing I wish to convey my personal thanks to the directors of this association for the support they have given me during the year."

LEADERS' WORK

Mr. Witter called upon Norman Collins, president of the senior leaders corp, for a report on that body's activities during the year. Mr. Collins referred to the corps' various activities, touching upon the assistance the members gave the physical department and praising highly Allan Stewart, former leader, who is now working in the Shanghai Foreign "Y."

Harold Tyson sketched the functions staged by the association's boxing and wrestling club, touching upon the charity shows the group had assisted and the manner in which it had stimulated the sport.

Reports on the soccer and tennis clubs were presented by Sam Hill, who spoke of the high standard of sportsmanship shown by the footballers and reviewed with regret the unfortunate financial conditions which forced the petition for the Aldous Cup this season.

Successes of the badminton club were outlined by Mr. Witter who noted the association had won the Vancouver Island fourth division title.

The progress of the track and field club, in the running of which he was assisted by Cyril Conorton and Vir Shoemaker, was described by Archie McKinnon, coach and physical director. He spoke of the outstanding showing of Y.M.C.A. athletes in meets last year and touched upon the competition for the Aldous Cup this season.

SWIMMERS ACTIVE

Chris McRae reviewed the successes of the swimming clubs, touching upon their functions during the 1932-33 year. He spoke of the association's representation on the Olympic team and its victories in all local galas. General work of the Y.M.C.A., its side branches and groups were sketched by H. S. Hamill in a short report. He described the regular scheduled classes, social and community functions and referred to the assistance given outside organizations.

T. Chapman reviewed the work of the Hi-Y Club in its efforts to promote a high Christian character.

The assistance given the association by the Ladies Auxiliary was shown in a report by Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, president of that group. She touched upon the three major functions held during the year, remarking on the proceeds from each and thanked all those who had assisted in staging them.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Attendance and finances during the year just concluded were slightly down, W. T. Straith told the meeting in his survey of the boys' department. The Summer Camp, Apple Day, Boys' Hobby Fair and other activities came in for praise and an expression of thanks to the service clubs for their sponsoring of membership for the underprivileged was voiced.

Thanks for the leadership given the group by various speakers and committee men during the season was expressed by Jack Watson in his report on the Quad Club.

Activities of the Spielers' Club, Public Speaking Class, Salesmanship Class, Dormitory Club and other subdivisions were reviewed by Dr. T. A. Gray.

Further tribute to the work of the Ladies Auxiliary was paid by J. A. Sturrock in the house committee's report. Redecoration plans were being arranged and other improvements were under consideration, he said.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE VALUABLE

Value of the recent membership drive was emphasized by Byron Johnson, who stated the "figures" were slightly up this year. He felt confident the association's objective of 500 senior members could be attained. Mr. Johnson moved a formal vote of thanks to E. D. Leitch for the work he had carried on before he left the city.

The Y.M.C.A. had kept expenditures down as far as possible and would continue to practice economies, H. B. Dawson, head of the finance committee said. There was no capital debt, salaries had been cut but reduction in returns from membership and dormitories had caused the association to fall behind, he said. Mr. Dawson favored the floating of a private loan or the securing of a mortgage to pay off outstanding accounts.

W. Ellis Brown concluded the presentation of reports with a general description of the aims and objects of the association and the manner in which these had been carried out during the year. He dealt with the assistance given the needy in furnishing free lodgings and spoke of the community work of the Y.M.C.A. Many organizations had been assisted by the staff and an ideal of service had been followed, he said.

Opening the meeting, Rev. G. A. Reynolds, president of the Victoria Ministerial Association, conducted the devotional services, and a quartette composed of Mrs. H. Campbell, Mrs. Georgina Watt, Frank Paulding and Frank Spooner presented delightful vocal numbers to the accompaniment of Mrs. Charles Conyers.

Mr. Paulding drew the programme to a close with a short address. Refreshments were served following the meeting by members of the Ladies Auxiliary.

Manx, the native language of the Isle of Man, is dying out. Less than 1,000 of the island's inhabitants have any usable knowledge of it now.

The average daily expenditure of the United States for the fiscal year of 1932 was $12,331,289.

WITTER AGAIN HEADS Y.M.C.A.

Returned as President of Board of Directors at Special Meeting

Directors of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday evening returned H. B. Witter to the presidency of their board at a special gathering following the annual meeting of the association.

Three new men were appointed to the directorate for three years, one for two years and three others for one year.

Three of the retiring directors were returned. They were J. Butterfield, H. B. Dawson and A. Sturrock. Mr. Dawson accepted his appointment conditionally, stating he wished to resign as soon as his place could be filled, adding ill health had forced this step. J. A. Bennell, Dr. T. W. A. Gray and W. A. Jameson were elected for three-year terms. W. F. Pinfold was put on the board for two and J. A. Heritage, Warren Martin and E. O. Rowebottom for one each.

W. T. Straith brought in the report of the nominating committee at the annual meeting, where it was passed without amendment.

PASTORS HEAR REV. G. O. FALLIS

Impressive Sermon Delivered at United Church Conference in Vancouver

Canadian Press

Vancouver, May 18.—At a well-attended service in connection with the United Church Conference in St. John's Church here, Rev. G. O. Fallis, retiring president, preached an impressive sermon on the text, "In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity, consider."

Mr. Fallis urged the British Columbia conference to look on life in its larger and many-sided bearings. Life was always disintegrating and re-integrating. "Nothing that is alive is static," he said, "and we are part of a process that is always going on. Nature is essentially kind to man and its resources are boundless, but man in his stupidity interferes with the course of nature."

"There could be nothing but condemnation for those who destroyed food in order that prices might remain high, while people were starving," he said.

OFFICIALS CHOSEN
Following the election of the president, Rev. H. E. Horton of St. George's Church, Vancouver, was elected to the office of secretary, succeeding Rev. A. D. Archibald. Mr. Horton chose as his assistant Rev. F. E. Runnalls of Cedar Cottage, and the conference approved.

Rev. H. T. Allen of Terrace, was elected to the office of treasurer. He presented the report of the treasurer for the previous year, showing a substantial balance to the credit of the fund, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Bunt for his work of several years. The conference fund meets all expenses of the gathering each year, and the office expenses during the year.

A message from the Moderator of the General Council, Rev. T. Albert Moore, D.D., to the conference was read by Rev. A. M. Sanford, D.D., and heartily received by the delegates.

WILL DISCUSS GORGE BRIDGE

Municipal Representatives Will Meet Government on Monday Morning

May Reach Finite Settlement on Future of Much-used Span

Possibility of finite settlement on the future of the Gorge Bridge by Monday, was intimated this morning, when it was announced that a meeting of the joint committee of Saanich and Esquimalt with Premier Tolmie and government officials, had been arranged for Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

The municipal delegates will attend the meeting armed with a complete statement for the replacing of the bridge and urge upon the government its responsibility in providing a new span.

For the last two weeks, public works officials of Saanich and Esquimalt have been busy engaged in compiling costs of structures ranging from wooden spans to concrete. It was suggested yesterday that the most suitable bridge to span the Gorge would be the pin and rib type, made of steel, estimated to cost between $12,000 and $15,000.

The possible representatives of the two municipalities will be: Councillors W. R. Woods and G. Stanley Eden, Clerk R. B. F. Sewell, and H. Allen, engineer of Saanich; and Reeve Albert Heald, councillors R. A. Anderson and George Price, and H. P. Bourne, engineer of Esquimalt. Reeve William Croucher now in Vancouver attending a session of the executive of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, and if he is back by Monday, it is anticipated that he will also attend.

Why Dentists say "Milk of Magnesia"
Nearly every dentist asked will tell you "Use Milk of Magnesia on your teeth."

That's because dental science, in the last few years, has revealed that MANY TOOTH TROUBLES are fostered by certain acids in the mouth which old-time dentifrices failed to combat.

Those deadly acids—deadly to tooth health—are NEUTRALIZED by Milk of Magnesia.

Hence, teeth thus cleaned become WHITER, less susceptible to BREAKING DOWN OF ENAMEL, less likely to foster pyorrhea.

For that reason, on dental advice, millions have discarded old-type toothpastes, and adopted this scientific way.

BUSINESS GAINS ARE SUSTAINED

Vigor Continues Pronounced As Seasonal Lift Wanes, Dun and Bradstreet Report

Evidence of the sustained vigor in the upswing of business is becoming more pronounced, even though the period of normal seasonal expansion has been passed, according to the review of conditions issued by Dun and Bradstreet, through Arthur Mallet, local manager.

The confidence stride which progress now has assumed, the review states, reveals the general feeling of assurance that the current revival rests on a firm foundation, which has been built slowly and solidly during the last two years.

"Reports received from leading centres of distribution," the review continued, "emphasize the steadily gaining weekly volume of retail sales, the appearance of price mark-ups in other than staple merchandise and a dollar volume running ahead of the comparative totals of a year ago. As retail prices generally persist at a low level, the increased dollar volume is indicative of the continued rise in unit turnover."

Produce, hardware, dry goods and shoes appear to be taking the lead as spring ready-to-wear and some of the other seasonal merchandise were not purchased so actively as during the week previous. Sales of new automobiles are increasing and automobile accessories are moving well. A better volume of rural buying was reported and mail-order houses have increased their shipments following the recent price advance in livestock.

Vancouver, May 19 (Canadian Press).—Two armed robbers held up Thomas Kennedy, 149 East Fifty-ninth Avenue, and a young woman whose name was not given to the police, while the pair was sitting in Kennedy's car at Little Mountain Park shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday evening, and robbed Kennedy of $2.

PUBLIC SERVICES FREE TO NEEDY

Olympia, Wash., May 19.—The Washington state department of public works to-day urged private utility companies to provide free service to the needy.

Her BACKACHES have GONE!

Quick, sure relief with Fruit-a-ties

"Your splendid remedy acted like a tonic to my entire system. I can't begin to tell what I suffered from backaches due to kidney derangement. When I would bend down it seemed that I couldn't straighten up again. I was continually awakened at night from the same cause. Dizzy, sick headaches and a weak stomach made me feel perfectly wretched. Now thanks to your wonderful 'Fruit-a-ties', I am enjoying life again."

Fruit-a-ties . . . all drug stores panies selling water, light and gas either to donate or furnish on credit service to persons whose needs are approved by county welfare boards.

Director E. K. Murray made the request in a memorandum to all private utilities operating under his jurisdiction. He said some officials of public utility companies had stated regulations of the department forbade them from furnishing free or credit service to those in need.

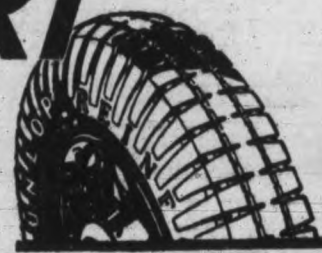

"The department will not stand in the way of providing such service for the public welfare," Murray said. Describing the primary object of public utility service as the advancement of public welfare, he added: "This object, when necessary, must take priority over profits."

OUTSIDE TEAMS TOOK TROPHIES

School Sports Championship Won By Courtenay at Port Alberni

Special to The Times
Port Alberni, May 19.—Athletes from the Courtenay public school ran roughshod over all opposition at the tenth annual Upper Island public school sports held here Wednesday, taking not only the championship cup for highest number of points scored but all other silverware with the exception of two smaller trophies won by Union Bay and Comox.

Cherry Creek School won the cup contested by Courtenay, representing total aggregate points in field sports confined to rural schools of the Alberni district and competed in by pupils between the ages of six and nine years who were not taking part in the major sports.

Seven schools took part in the afternoon competitions and the standing at the finish was as follows:

Courtenay.....Pts. 86
Cumberland.....71
Comox.....47
Port Alberni.....42
Tecum Consolidated.....31
Alberni.....9

Perhaps the outstanding performance of the day was that of Union Bay School, which carried off the trophy for highest number of points scored by a two-room school. Comox School carried off the trophy for most points scored in the intermediate classes. Courtenay won the trophies for most points in both the senior and junior classes, for the junior boys' and junior girls' relay races; for the intermediate girls' relay and for the senior girls' relay.

ROYAL COURT IS BRILLIANT
Nearly 900 Guests Received By Queen in Palace Yesterday

American "Mamma" Gets More "Kick" Out of It Than Daughter

London, May 19 (Associated Press).—Several hundred debutantes were presented at court yesterday evening. It was not yet dark when the string band of the Goldstream Guards played the National Anthem while Queen Mary, on the arm of the Prince of Wales, walked across the state room to the single golden throne. Nearly 900 guests began to pass by the throne, the King was again absent.

The Queen wore a gown of lace embroidered with diamonds and painted with roses over peach-colored chiffon, with a train of Irish lace over gold lace. Across her breast there was a blue garter ribbon.

The police, who had been most anxious this year to eliminate smoking, cocktail drinking and other practices which their Majesties consider unbecoming to debutantes, while waiting for the palace doors to open, had to break up a game of ring around the roses at Victoria Memorial in front of the Palace yesterday evening.

Seven or eight cars with debutantes arrived before the gates of the palace were opened and began to chase each other around the large fountain memorial, while their occupants shouted and laughed hilariously.

London, May 19.—It's "Mamma" who gets the real kick out of the British court—not the daughter herself—one of the "mamas" of an American debutante presented yesterday evening at Buckingham Palace disclosed.

"The poor girls actually go through a terrible ordeal," she said.

"They are nervous about the curtsy and after that one brief moment in front of the Queen I am told there is really nothing to do but stand around and look beautiful and wish it was all over."

"But mamma—she sits in a comfortable hotel room and thinks about her own entrance into the bridge club when she gets back home and can see the neighbors around to see her daughter's photographs in those three white plumes," this mother continued.

"Lots of us mamas are thinking about our daughters' social future and long after the plumes are stowed away in moth balls the daughter will still have a feather in her cap because of her presentation."

London, May 19.—The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Fairchild United Church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. J. Jackson, Durban Street, with good attendance of members. Mrs. A. Campbell conducted the devotional services which included a chapter of the study book, "The Task That Challenges," dealing from a Christian point of view with the new Canadians of various nationalities who come to the Dominion as immigrants. Mrs. C. A. Fields, the president, presided at the business meeting, at which reports were received from the convention of Christian stewardship, mission bands, literature, temperance, supplies and visiting. A solo by Mrs. S. Rowley, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," was much appreciated. Two new members were received. At the conclusion of the business delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Hopkin, the thanks of the gathering being tendered to Mrs. Jackson for her hospitality.

Daughters of St. George—Victoria Lodge No. 83, Daughters of St. George, held its regular meeting Wednesday evening in the S.O.E. Hall with worthy President Sister N. Muckle in the chair. Four visiting sisters from Prince George, B.C., were welcomed by the president. The newly elected officers will be installed at the next meeting, June 7, by District Deputy, Sister A. Harris. The beautiful hand-made cloth donated by Sister A. Harris was won by Mrs. Hooper, Fairfield Road. A good report of the summer sale was read and the committee in charge was thanked. Following the business session cards were played, and refreshments were served by Sister R. Williams and others.

SAY ORIENTALS LOWER WAGES
Minimum Wage Board Told of Competition in Dress Goods Manufacture

Vancouver, May 19.—Competition from Orientals, who it was alleged "finish" work in their homes at extremely low rates, untouched by taxation and regulations which bind regular factories, threatened the manufacture of dress goods in Vancouver with extinction, it was charged by witnesses at yesterday afternoon's session of the board inquiring into the operation of the Women's Minimum Wage Act.

Added to Oriental competition was that of factories in Quebec, where witnesses said, minimum wage regulations were being loosely enforced during the depression.

In dress goods, burlap and confectionery witnesses submitted briefs to the board asking for reduction of wages and increase in time of apprenticeship.

The hearing was marked by statements from several witnesses that their factories do not employ any apprentices, because the existing time was too high and learning period allowed, too short.

Wm. Crouch, the president, in the chair.

RECOMMENDATIONS ENDORSED

The recommendations of the Friendly Help, agreed upon by the league, were as follows: That the name of the merged society be, Friendly Help and Welfare Association; that the new executive consist of the present executive of the Friendly Help, consisting of ten members, also the three aldermen representing the City Council, and eight members to be appointed by the Social Service League. In the event of a merger being considered the Friendly Help should first like the opportunity of having a full report on the assets and liabilities of the Social Service League.

As earnest of its desire to meet the suggestions of the Friendly Help, the meeting yesterday evening named eight members to the proposed joint executive of the new body, as follows: Mrs. B. A. Bagnall, V. R. Midgley, J. A. Hayward, Rev. F. C. Conley, Mrs. Herbert Pendray, Rev. Father E. M. Scheelen and J. Goldie.

INTERIM GOVERNING BODY

Frederick Landsberg, after noting that as both bodies were incorporated, they would have to be taken over by an interim governing body, proposed the following motion, which was unanimously carried: "In view of the fact that the report of the survey made by Mrs. Cameron Parker regarding the merger of the two organizations into one, states that it is the duty of the joint committee to secure public understanding and endorsement necessary to the reorganization of the two bodies, and as it is necessary to create an interim governing body to launch the new agency, therefore I move be it resolved this meeting endorse and approve in principle the following motion, and that the president and vice-president of the Social Service League, the president and vice-president of the Friendly Help, with P. E. Winslow, the chairman of the survey committee, and Mayor Leeming and one alderman, or any two aldermen whom the mayor may designate, be appointed to act as an interim governing body to arrange all details in connection with the merger of the two organizations."

SPIRIT APPRECIATED

During the discussion, many of the members expressed appreciation of the spirit in which the Friendly Help used the overtures for amalgamation, and the hope was expressed that, in the interests of the community as a whole, the merger would be consummated.

In the event of the merger not being completed by May 31, the meeting decided to continue the work of the league in the meantime.

On the motion of Miss Clay, a resolution was passed to the effect that the efforts to bring about the merger of the two bodies, and to the board of directors and the staff of the league for their devoted services during the last year.

Landing of Refugees 150 Years Ago Recalled By Local Group

Tea at Mrs. W. E. Adams' Home Marks Historic Anniversary

Commemoration of the landing of the United Empire Loyalists at St. John, N.B., in May, 1783, was made by Victoria members of the organization at a delightful gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Adams, Beach Drive, yesterday afternoon. Col. T. B. Monk and Rev. E. F. Church giving brief addresses in honor of the occasion.

HISTORY RECALLED

With pride the speakers recalled the traditions established by the 4,000 refugee Loyalists who, 150 years ago, arrived from New York City by boat at the mouth of the St. John River. A second fleet followed in June, and a third in September of the same year, carrying in all 10,000 persons. Thirty-five thousand eventually arrived in the Maritime Province, which at that time comprised both Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Those who were unable to get passage by vessel, walked or rode. Many embarked for England and Scotland, Newfoundland, Jamaica, Bermuda and the Bahamas.

Reference was also made to the formation of the association in Toronto six years ago, with many prominent Canadians on its roster.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

HOW CAN WE PREPARE BABY'S PORTIONS ECONOMICALLY?

During the rather long period when baby is getting used to new foods which are being fed in extremely small amounts, the mother is harassed by the necessity for cooking these small quantities daily. She has seemed to solve the problem by cooking an ordinary amount and keeping it on ice several days, reheating it when mealtime arrives. An electric refrigerator makes this procedure relatively harmless, but there are some disadvantages.

NOT APPETIZING

There is nothing more unappetizing than cold food, repeatedly warmed over, which has been allowed to stand in the ice box uncovered, grows stiff and crusty. It loses its flavor and takes in the combined odors of the ice box. It is most unattractive. Undoubtedly, it is more trouble to cook food fresh each day, but if we are endeavoring to cultivate a liking for food, we must be successful when we serve the child old food, even though it is spoiled.

PREPARE LESS

Try smaller recipes. The cereal may be cooked in such limited quantities as one-half cup of water, one-half cup of milk, a pinch of salt and one tablespoonful of fine cereal or two tablespoonfuls of such coarse cereals as oatmeal.

Buy vegetables in very small jars or tins prepared just for babies. One teaspoonful or less may be used for feeding. Keep the remainder in a glass or glass container with a cover, saucer placed over the open top.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Dr. Long, the church being prettily decorated for the occasion.

Semple; "The Weaker Sex," by Rosa Semple, with following cast: Reubin Hardy and Rosa Semple; instrumental quartette, Jimmie Matheson, Phyllis Daville, Rosa Semple, Vinne Johns, and Dolly Dunbar; vocal quartette; F. M. Westwood, mystery man; instrumental quartette.

Teachers Hosts At Delightful Tea

Sunday school teachers of the Metropolitan Church were hostesses at a most successful tea Thursday afternoon, Mrs. E. F. Church and Mrs. A. Sullivan welcoming the many guests. Spring flowers, including lilacs, tulips and narcissi were used in decoration, silver basket of the flowers centering the tea-table.

Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. George Robinson, Mrs. W. E. Harper, Mrs. A. H. Adams and Mrs. A. J. Daniels. The refreshments were in charge of the primary department, under the direction of Mrs. S. A. McAllister, while the serving was managed by the intermediate department, under the supervision of Miss Betty Jones.

A delightful programme, arranged by Miss Maquinn Daniels, included soprano solos by Miss Phyllis Daville, accompanied by Miss Elsie Friend; vocal duets by the Misses Enid and Miriam Church, accompanied by Miss Daniels, and solo by Mrs. Harold Campbell, who was also accompanied by Miss Daniels. Contralto solos by Mrs. S. M. Morion were enjoyed, and pianoforte selections were given by Miss Elsie Friend and Miss Maquinn Daniels.

The decorating of the tables and lecture room was the work of the junior department, under the co-ventureship of Miss C. Leddingham and Muriel Wright.

RUMOR CHANGES IN ICE PILOTS

At Least Three New Managers Expected in National Hockey Next Season

Montreal, May 11.—Rumors of new managers for National Hockey League clubs were abroad in Montreal yesterday. Hockey circles forecast several changes for N.H.L. managerial benches next season. It is considered likely here that Frank Nighbor, former Ottawa hockey star and last year's coach of the Buffalo Bisons of the International League, might displace Cy Denny as coach of the Ottawa team next season.

Rumors say Tommy Gorman, Ottawa sportsman, and last season's master-mind of the Chicago Black Hawks, will leave that post, due to pressure of his horse racing interests. Another report has it that Joe Simpson, who guided Bill Dwyer's New York Americans throughout the past season, will be dropped. Cooper Smeaton, former referee and ex-pilot of the Philadelphia Quakers, may find himself doing the heavy thinking for the Hawks, or might even steer the New York Americans. It is rumored here, Cooper refused to comment.

Major All-star Nines To Clash

Chicago, May 19.—The old controversy over the comparative average strength of the American and National Leagues will be settled, as far as one game can settle it, in Chicago, July 6.

All-star teams will be selected by a nation-wide vote of the fans and the profits turned over to the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America, the game's charitable organization.

SCHOOL BOXERS DISPLAY FORM

The boys of the Cranleigh House School again showed how well they receive their instruction on Wednesday evening when they staged their boxing and gym show in the school gymnasium.

Preceding each bout a demonstration was given of the manner in which the youngsters were taught. Each movement from stance, footwork, left and right blows, on through ducks and feints to the more complicated exercises of the game being demonstrated.

The final three-round bout showed up two boys of outstanding merit, Woodward and Ryall, both being fast and clever two-handed fighters who were willing to go all out from the final gong. Two other bouts in which Milligan met Harman, and R. Horsfield fought P. Denbigh, also provided plenty of excitement, while E. Stewart, J. Carr and W. Crowther, three mid-gets, surprised all by their clever boxing. P. Horsfield and A. Denbigh showed promise.

Gymnastics and tableaux by the senior and junior squads, rounded off the programme, after which the large gathering enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. C. V. Milton in the school.

Big League Baseball

San Francisco, May 19.—In a secret session called on short notice, representatives of five of the eight Pacific Coast League baseball clubs discussed league affairs "informally" here yesterday, but declined to give out any other information regarding the meeting.

The meeting was supposed to have been called at the instance of Bill Klepper, but the president of the Seattle club denied this late yesterday. A report Klepper was seeking financial assistance was denied unofficially by one of those present, who said the subject had not been brought up.

It was announced, however, a regular meeting would be held here tomorrow morning to take up several matters.

Klepper, scouted reports from Seattle credited to George Vanderveer, majority stockholder of the Indians, that the reason the meeting was called to obtain approval to switch the next two weeks of play of the northern club to some California city.

secured for him by Jimmy McLarni for the title fight in L. A. May 29.

"Mr. Rogers plans to use one of these ducks himself and he has pair, too, for Premier Simon Tolmie and his son, who hope to motor down to the scene of the murder, or what ever it will be.

"Although I am not an expert in politics, even in the expediences of the racket, I think the plan of Simon to see some speechless fighting, instead of hearing rightless speeches, is wise manoeuvre.

"What Simon may do to his rival in the political division after he see Corbett and seems throwing rights and lefts without words, to Kid Pattull and Battling Bower, should be plenty, don't you think, or do you?"

"Mr. Rogers plans to fly from Seattle to L. A. and to ship his car so that he can take care of his friends there in the style to which he accustom them."

According to the sports writer of The Vancouver Sun, Premier Tolmie will be at the ringside when Jimmy McLarni, Vancouver fighter, seeks the welterweight title in the bout with Young Corbett at Los Angeles, May 29. Under the heading "Simon Seeking Pointers" the writer says:

"Mr. Ralph Rogers, leading man-about-town of this northwest, telephoned from Seattle to say that he has just received one dozen ringside seats.

Outfielders as well as infielders should always know what is being pitched to opposing hitters. It lets them know in advance whether a fast or curve ball is being thrown, and this combined with their previous knowledge of the batters, often gives them the advantage of an extra step or two, which is the difference between a put-out or a base hit.

The infielders usually give a hand sign behind their backs to flash these signs. One popular signal is closed hand for fast ball and open hand for a curve.

Dr. Jack Wright and Gilbert Nunn Made Game Stand in Matches Yesterday

VINES RECEIVES GREAT APPLAUSE

Victory in Doubles To-day Will Win North American Zone Final For Americans

Montreal, May 19.—Power in the flashing racquets of Wilmer Allison and Ellsworth Vines carried United States into a 2 to 0 lead over Canada in the first day's play of the North American zone Davis Cup final yesterday.

Allison, Texas captain of the visiting team, defeated Dr. Jack Wright, Canadian veteran, 6-2, 7-6, 6-2, while his sensational young teammate, Vines, from Pasadena, Cal., ambled through to victory over Gilbert Nunn, Toronto, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3.

The United States players won six straight sets and showed a clear margin of superiority. They forced the pace almost throughout and had their Canadian opponents in continual trouble. Allison was all over the court as he drove and volleyed his way to victory over Wright, and then Vines gave the crowd a few glimpses of the tennis that beat the best players in the world last summer as he flashed through to triumph over Nunn.

WRIGHT TRIES HARD

The Canadians were not beaten for lack of trying. Both fought doggedly against great odds throughout, and Wright particularly made a determined stand against Allison when he took a lead of 4-1 in the second set, and held his highly-ranked opponent to 7-6 in this frame.

Nunn, of course, had the most difficult job, for the mighty Vines was playing his first Davis Cup match this year and was out to see that there were no mistakes.

The United States team needs just one more match out of the next three to qualify to meet the Argentine in the American inter-zone final at Washington next week. To-day in the doubles, the American team of George Lott, Chicago, and John van Ryn, Philadelphia, met Dr. Wright and Marcel Rainville, Montreal.

The grace and power in the United States champion's stroking stirred the audience to rounds of applause. Vines's poise and precision, his perfect timing and his powers of anticipation, make the game look so easy that the efforts of his opponents might easily have been misjudged. The lanky Californian's most interesting stroke, his flat hit forehand drive, his famous service volleying and backhand, all were used to perfection.

Allison, although his ground strokes were not so graceful as those of Vines, volleyed effectively.

Soccer Finals On To-morrow

A pair of football matches will be put on at the Athletic Park to-morrow afternoon by the Pacific Coast League. Starting at 2 o'clock the Victoria West and Nanaimo Thistles, second division clubs, will meet in the final of the Combination Cup series. Alcock will referee. This will be followed by a game at 3:30 o'clock between the Esquimalt and Victoria City, first division outfits, in the final of the Phoenix cup competition. Robb will handle the whistle.

ensive strokes. Wright's most effective weapon was his heavily-sliced backhand, that dug into the court and caused Allison some embarrassment. Nunn had a different problem, as Vines hardly ever gave him a chance to take the offensive, but at times his forehand caused the shuffling Californian some trouble, and his backhand was steady.

In the first set of the Wright-Allison match, after each had won his service, there were three deuce games, two of which Allison won, and the United States player went on to take the next three in a row.

The Canadian made a strong showing in the second set. He got more length on his backhand and forced Allison into frequent errors. Wright went ahead at 4-1. Allison won his serve and then came the decisive game on Wright's delivery. The Canadian led at 40-0, only to see his opponent come from behind to take the game and then tie the score at 4-4. Wright held on as he won the next game at deuce, but Allison drove in to the net again to take three in a row for the set.

ON TOP OF NET

The third set was almost a repetition of the first, except that there were four long deuce games and Wright was fighting doggedly to keep in the running. Allison was on top of the net at every opening, however, and once in his excitement, threw his racket over the net trying to get at a cut return that bounced back over the net. The stroke analysis showed Allison had thirty-eight placements to seventeen by Wright, most of them scored from the net.

Nunn, playing in his first Davis Cup match, had a tough assignment in Vines. He seemed slightly disconcerted by the visitor's near-balance and the fact that he had something to do with the fact that he overhit considerably.

Vines won easily, yet Nunn never gave up and there were no less than seven deuce games in the three sets.

The visitor started off to play against Nunn's backhand, but the Canadian's game stood up well in this department at first, and only faded under constant pressure to which it was subjected later in the game.

The grace and power in the United States champion's stroking stirred the audience to rounds of applause. Vines's poise and precision, his perfect timing and his powers of anticipation, make the game look so easy that the efforts of his opponents might easily have been misjudged. ## Horses Coming From Tanforan

Lonnie Copenhagen Will Race His Well-known String at Willows Meet

Horses from Tanforan are coming to Victoria for the opening of the British Columbia racing season at the Willows next Wednesday. Two carloads have already been shipped and when the present meeting at the San Bruno course closes to-morrow, several other horsemen, who visit the northwest every summer, will load their stables and ship to either Victoria or Vancouver.

Lonnie Copenhagen has already forwarded thirteen head for the Willows meeting. Practically all of the horses in the car appeared here last season. His stable includes Oraceland, The Lone Trail, Argue, Blue Midway, Highway, Sally, Bellarion, Cloister's Dream, Pelika, Miss Sage, Salt Princess, Patsy Carter and Nellie Baul.

Sieve Brodie is also coming back to the Coast, with seven head. Maghey is the only one to race here in previous years, but the others, Kerisad, Brilliant Lips, Nanny D. Gogo, Marion B. and Viola K. are well-known in the south. R. Knutson has forwarded the speedy Altavir, which is already stabled at the Willows. Court Thurman's Honeythistle has also been sent shipped with Nugent, Katte L. and Warren S.

THREE CRICKET GAMES BILLED

Albions to Meet Five C's, Incogs to Play Duncan and Wanderers, Victoria

Victors in last Saturday's opening league fixtures, Five C's and Albions, will meet in to-morrow's cricket fixture at Beacon Hill grounds, while Cowichan will play the Incogs at Duncan, and Victoria will start up against the Wanderers at the Work Point pitch.

The Churchmen-Albion match is expected to claim the most interest, since the result of that will determine which team will lead the league or share top berth with Cowichan if the up-landers are able to take their game against the Incogs.

Victoria and the Wanderers will be out after their first league victory and are expected to put up a good exhibition at the Barracks grounds.

The Wanderers will field the following team for the game: Boscom (captain), King, Darcus, Clarkson, Andrews, Jones, Anderstrom, Nation, Jordan, Austin and Moffatt Jr. Play will commence at 12:30 p.m. sharp.

The Albions will be represented by the following: N. P. Pender, Barclay, Ewet, Walton, Gibbons, Pritchard, D. Pite, R. Wood, L. P. Stoney and E. D. Freeman.

Jack Thompson Will Help Train Corbett

Los Angeles, May 19.—Jack Thompson, former world welterweight champion, was signed yesterday to help train Young Corbett III in the defence of his welter title against Jimmy McLarnin at Wrigley Field here on the night of May 29.

McLarnin renewed training yesterday after a layoff and continued to better his sparring partners round at Wrigley. Corbett also took a long hard workout at his Ocean Park camp. Thompson won the title from Jackie Fields in 1931. It changed hands twice thereafter before Fields regained possession of the crown, only to lose it to Corbett in San Francisco, February 22. Thompson has been absent from the ring for more than a year.

SHOULDICE BASEBALL STAR

Strikes Out Twenty-one As Sons of Canada Win Twilight League Fixture

Wilt Shouldice gave a brilliant pitching performance at the Athletic Park yesterday evening to lead the Sons of Canada to a 3 to 2 victory over the Rosebuds in the Twilight Baseball League. The youngster struck out twenty-one and allowed his opponents one lone hit. Scott robbed Shouldice of a hitless performance.

The Sons got off to a two run lead in the first inning only to have the Rosebuds dead-end the count in the fourth. A lone run in the eighth gave the Sons a victory.

The Sons collected four hits off Gordie Jones who twirled for the Rosebuds. Jones struck out thirteen.

ERNIE STOCK IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF SOFTBALLERS

Ernie Stock was re-elected president of the Lower Island Softball Association at the annual meeting held yesterday evening at the Y.M.C.A. It is his tenth successive term as head of the Lower Island body. Sid Jenkins was re-elected vice-president and Ralph Butler, secretary-treasurer. Annual reports presented by the officers showed the association to have enjoyed a successful season in 1932. It was decided to change the constitution regarding fees for protests. In the future if a club wins a protest it will have its fee returned. In former years the association retained the fee regardless of the outcome of the protest.

GAME IS GREAT ASSET TO B.C.

Should Be Kept Out of Politics, Says Hon. R. H. Pooley at Vancouver Convention

Vancouver, May 19.—"Game is the finest asset we have and I'll always fight for it," said Hon. R. H. Pooley, addressing assembled delegates at the convention of the Western Association of Fish and Game Commissioners here yesterday evening.

"I may not be in office much longer but I'll always fight for our game. I want to say this and I know one or two of Liberal persuasion may be present—Keep the administration of game out of politics and never abolish your game board."

Mr. Pooley asked co-operation of the United States officials in preventing the bootlegging of cougar pelts in British Columbia, suggesting they be specially marked when first reported. He paid tribute to the work of Major J. A. McPherson, supervisor of fisheries, and Dr. W. A. Clemens, director of the Pacific Biological Station at Nanaimo, both federal officials, and the praised A. Bryan Williams, head of the British Columbia Game Board, as "the best known sportsman in the Canadian Northwest."

Chief feature of yesterday's session was a discussion of vermin control by Dr. R. Gabrielson, Oregon, and the U.S. Biological Survey. "As a rule we exaggerate the effect of natural enemies," he said. "Indiscriminate vermin control campaigns are often more harmful than beneficial. Vermin are only one factor. Food, shelter, disease, climatic conditions, all the count. Local conditions make all the difference in the world."

A paper on the game fishes of British Columbia by C. M. Mottley, of the Pacific Biological Station at Nanaimo, read by Dr. Clemens. Fishing in many of the older places has become like golf played on a putting green, said Dr. Mottley, but British Columbia's big game fish, the steelhead and the rainbow trout, are still plentiful. He said that the steelhead and the rainbow trout are still plentiful. He said that the steelhead and the rainbow trout are still plentiful.

He said British Columbia has two distinct native species of trout, the rainbow and the cutthroat. The rainbow trout of the coastal regions is the steelhead while the interior representative is called Kamloops trout. Two other trout species have been introduced into the province, the Atlantic salmon and the European brown trout.

PRINCESS PATS PROVIDE UPSET

Hand League Leading Jokers 13 to 8 Setback in Senior City Softball

Providing the biggest upset of yesterday evening's senior city softball, Princess Pats handed the league-leading Jokers a 13 to 8 setback in a game played at 7 o'clock at the Point Barracks. Beavers took a 7 to 6 decision from Macdonald's Service at Beacon Hill Park to enter a tie with Jokers for first place, while the Jokers played brilliantly to win a 7 to 2 victory from Ross Bay at Memorial Park.

The tie for first place is created owing to the fact that Macdonald's Service over their last game with the Jokers have been upheld. Moore now hold second place undisputed, while the P.P.C.L.I. Ross Bay and Macdonald's are tied at the bottom of the standings.

The Pats played first-class ball in handling the Jokers their first defeat of the season. Lloyd Jones started on the mound but was replaced by Louis de Costa.

Practically errorless playing in the field was responsible for the Moore victory. Ted "Beano" Fox receiving fine support all round. Ross Bay took an early lead, but the lodgement came through with a five-run rally in the fourth and held the lead for the rest of the game.

Beavers and Macdonald's provided plenty of excitement throughout their encounter. After nip-and-tuck play in the first stages, Beavers came through with two runs in the last inning to win.

Late Support At Winnipeg Reduces
Losses In Wheat

Winnipeg, May 19.—Late session support, entering the pit in final dealings, lifted wheat futures from the low points on the Winnipeg Grain Market today. Recovering from one-cent declines, values at the finish were only 1/2 cent under the previous close.

The related support swept prices upward in a closing rush that in a short fifteen-minute flurry lifted values from the day's bottommost points to finish 3/4 to 1/2 lower, May at 62 3/4, 63 1/2 and October 65 1/2 cents.

Source of the late buying was unknown as previously little support had been in evidence, even the announced reports of foreign sales of wheat failing to impart any enthusiasm to the depressed values.

Founded by spasmodic bursts of selling, futures eased steadily for most of the session, as the pressure of offerings showed little inclination to rally and at times trading was dragsy. Liquidation was active in all futures.

LITTLE EXPORT

A small overnight export business, estimated in some quarters as much as 300,000 bushels, was insufficient to halt the decline, little support being evident. Declines at Liverpool also were depressing as prices, reacting to yesterday's weakness, closed one penny per 100 pounds lower.

This week's clearances from southern hemisphere exporting countries showed a large decline from the previous week. Only 5,000,000 bushels were cleared from Argentina and Australia this week, compared to the 8,000,000-bushel total of the previous period. More than 500,000 bushels of Australia's 2,000,000-bushel shipments went to the Orient.

Cash and coarse grain trading was slow and uninteresting throughout.
